

The MinIndie Film Festival Rules:

All the film duration must be 9 minutes or shorter.
The festival accepts films of any genre and format.
There is no restriction on the production date and duration.
All projects must be in English or have English subtitles.

All the selected films are published on the festival website and the webpage during the Event Dates plus several days before the next festival edition starts.

The selected films may be published before the Event Dates after the festival jury selection decision.

The selected films are published via the links to YouTube or Vimeo (the links must be open for public and have no passwords) or by uploading the screener directly to the Festival webpage. The selected films are not published online without submitters' permission.

If a filmmaker wishes to be eligible for multiple awards he/she has to submit to several categories.

The festival is not responsible for any copyright infringement of your material.

You give the festival permission to publish the images, posters, trailers, film stills and film parts on the festival's website (www.indieforyou.com), and/or social media with the promotional proposes.

The submission does not guarantee acceptance.

The festival is not held responsible for the content of your submissions

Any viewer can donate any sum to the filmmaker via the festival website.
