

Near Nazareth Festival (NNF) invites all film lovers to partake in our celebration.
Near Nazareth Festival hospitably opens its doors to filmmakers. Festival participants from around the world will show their works. We believe that the best place for them to present their work - is Near Nazareth Festival.

More than 3500 participants from 70 countries of 5 continents presented their films and works at the Festival in Israel for 5 years.

The works are evaluated by an international jury. Many participants became prize-winners and winners in their nominations.

A festival diploma increases the prestige of the piece.

We invite you to take part in it. We will be glad to review your work.

Our motto is: Everyone has a chance to be evaluated and win! We wish you creative success.

An important addition.

We continue our work during this coronavirus period!

We believe that film and art is very important during this time.

We still accept submissions and will hold online screenings as scheduled.

We look forward to your new works.

Art is life.

Stay safe and healthy!

Our festival - NNF - is the first of its kind.

3. The decision of the jury is final and not subject to revision.

It is prohibited to transfer the insignia of our festival to other work or transferred to other individuals.

A full list of rules is posted only on our official festival website.

All works are evaluated by a jury, festival audience opinions will be considered as well.

Submission of works to the festival does not guarantee an official selection.

Submissions which passed the official selection is not guaranteed to be screened.

Screening does not mean a win at the festival.

Each category can have multiple winners.

Management of the Festival has the right to make any changes to the rules, dates, deadlines, categories, prices and content.

An independent commission decides on screenings and the selection of the winners of the festival. It can be different works.

Live Screening in the festival does not mean a victory in the nomination.

4. The sequence of selection of films at our festival and notification.

Our festival pays maximum attention to each author and his work.

The festival commission looks through all the films, evaluates all the works received, makes its decision and recommends it to the Live show.

Authors receive in advance letters with recommendations of the commission to the show, and give permission for the show. In accordance with the decision of the commission and the author's response, as well as the high quality of the copy sent by the author, a decision is made to show the film during the festival. Our festival does not pay Screening Fee.

These films are marked by the "official selection" notification and receive the appropriate laurels and a certificate at the end of the festival within a month.

Additionally - It is possible to receive from us a Certificate of E-mail or by mail - A4 size (for additional coverage of the cost of design, printing and postal services).

5. All other films are viewed and evaluated by the commission, but can not be recommended for a live show. They receive notifications:

The preselected, Finalist, Semifinalist and receive a "certificate of the participant"

Additionally - If no decision is taken to show the film, but the author wants to show the it anyway, there is an option of commercial display (for payment by the author the film will be shown)

6. The winner is chosen by a decision made by a commission from the categories of Selected and Finalists and does not depend on the live screenings of the film during the festival. Some of the films will only be shown in Live screenings, others are only awarded.

7. The festival may refuse to accept the film for reasons of discrepancy to the spirit of the festival - racial and national intransigence, violence and pornography.

8. All will receive certificates and laurels at the end of the season in accordance with their notifications.

9. VIP - category .

Participation in the VIP program gives you the following benefits -
