

Rules & Terms

This agreement is between "MAYKOP INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL" (MIFF) and film-makers.

This Agreement will enter into force immediately after the application on our partner sites.

MIFF has no restrictions on genres of films.

The length should not exceed 240 minutes.

The film must be made after 1 January 2014.

The film does not have to be the premiere.

All films selected for the festival must not break the law of the Russian Federation and the moral and ethical standards.

All materials are only online at the festival partners.

The selection of films is engaged in the jury.

Jury considers only those films whose authors have paid the entrance fee at the partner sites.

The entry fee is non-refundable and does not give 100% guarantees showing the film at the festival.

All materials sent to MIFF will not be returned.

MIFF has the right to use all the promotional materials and movie trailers for placement on the festival website, and media channels and social networks, such as YouTube, Twitter, Facebook, etc.

All materials for the selection must have English subtitles.

Movies that are selected for the festival must have Russian subtitles.

Festival participants should independently send us a copy of your movie in any digital format online.

Films selected for showing at the festival, must pass all state testing and getting rolling certificates in accordance with the Russian law on their own.

MIFF helps to make subtitles and go through all the necessary checks receipt of all documents to show to the state authorities, for a fee, which is negotiated individually.

MIFF has the right at any time to change the date and time, and location, and other information in the agreement. MIFF is not obliged to notify the filmmakers about the changes.

The new agreement comes into force immediately after publication on the festival website and on partner sites.

Filing is an electronic signature, this you agree to all the conditions prescribed above.