

Cagliari, 11 march 2018

SUBJECT: RULES and Terms

All submitted films will be considered by the Artistic Committee who will choose the ones which will be screened at the festival and will participate at the final competition.

By the way Solidando organization could decide to screen films even if not been selected by the Artistic Committee.

The jury will include professionals from the filmmaking world, television, media and teaching. The judges decision will be irrevocable.

1st official jury prize USD 500
2nd official jury prize USD 300
3rd official jury prize USD 200

Rules & Terms

We accept short films with social topics.

We mean real stories or fictions that deal with human rights, solidarity, cooperation, education, social projects, third-world issues, poverty, environmental sustainability, diversity, etc. etc..

MAIN RULES

- 1) films must have a social topic and theme (see above description)
- 2) films must be no longer than 20 minutes (including credits)
- 3) genre accepted: documentary, fiction and animation films
- 4) any nationality can participate
- 5) films not in Italian language must be subtitled in Italian or in English (films with English dialogues must have English subtitles)
- 6) films must have been completed after December 2014
- 7) format must be HD or FullHD
- 8) each author can submit unlimited number of films
- 9) there is no Premiere policy
- 10) films must be submitted through the specifics websites

for further info please visit: www.solidando-film-festival.org

President
Gianluca Calabrese

www.solidando.com
info@solidando.com
Associazione di Volontariato Solidando
Cooperazione e Sviluppo onlus

Via Eroi d'Italia, 27 - 09134 Cagliari Italy EU
Codice fiscale 92133990926

Iscrizione al registro regionale del Volontariato della RAS al n. 1397