

Paris Privé Festival du Film is a celebration of bold & innovative storytellers.

About The Festival

We aim to start cross-cultural conversations and ignite creative collaborations through our programme of events and workshops.

At our prestigious flagship event at the world famous Le Grande Rex cinema in Paris, submitters will compete for the grand prize: The Paris Privé Flair award.

We are dedicated to innovation, creation, and emerging artists. We aim to shake up the old guard, giving new blood a much deserved place on the international stage.

Paris Privé will be active within the European film community, curating a series of educational, networking, and Meetup events year round in the run-up to our December awards ceremony.

We are looking for technically excellent filmmakers who know how to tell a good story. By marrying these skills, they create astonishing and new, yet classic, works that exceeds audiences' expectations.
