

RULE & TERMS

We accept all genres Short Shorts, Music Videos, Documentaries, Trailers, long Trailers, Feature Film and submissions for Actress/Actor performance and Director excellence.

Works must have been realized after 2010.

All the works must be original and the submitter has the responsibility to own the rights of every aspect of the Film.

Films that are not in English need English subtitles.

We love alternative, unconventional ideas and expression, but VIOLENCE, GROSSNESS AND SEX ARE NOT WELCOME! Also, this is NOT A SPACE FOR POLITICAL EXPOSURE AND FIGHTS.

If you are a Finalist, your Film will be screened in the Live Events in Cilento (Italy) and you'll receive all the information about the material to send.

Please don't write to ask to submit for free. The affordable submission fees are for the Theatre, the Live Events, SIAE taxes, the Prizes and other necessary expenses. Occasionally you can find discount codes on Social Media (Twitter and Facebook)!

Also, this is an Independent Festival self-sustained at this first year, so (like most of the Festivals), can't pay travels and accommodations for Filmmakers coming from all over the World. However, on the Website there is a list of suggested places to stay and places to eat, that accepted to offer discounts for the Festival attendees.
