The presentation of the works for entry to the competition will imply acceptance of these guidelines.

Annex I

RTVA Award to the Andalusian Audiovisual Creation Guidelines

First

The Public Broadcaster, Radio Television of Andalusia (RTVA, in Spanish), announces the “Premio RTVA a la Creación Audiovisual Andaluza” (“RTVA Award to the Andalusian Audiovisual Creation”) to be presented at Andalusian audiovisual events. This prize is to acknowledge outstanding Andalusian producers, directors, writers or producers, or the best Andalusian produced audiovisual work in all its forms, particularly in short film and documentary style.

This award demonstrates the commitment of the RTVA to Andalusia, its development and modernization. To assist in achieving these goals, RTVA believes in rewarding outstanding audiovisual works that have been produced or created by Andalusians as short films, documentaries, and exceptionally, films, or that they are fundamentally related to the Autonomous Community of Andalusia.

Second

RTVA Awards to the Andalusian Audiovisual Creation will be awarded by the Jury of the relevant contest, where a representative of RTVA is participating. Where appropriate, a special jury will be constituted for the purposes. This body may declare the prize invalid for awarding. Names of the jurors will be announced prior to its incorporation. Any incident that occurs in the interpretation or application of these guidelines will be resolved by the jury, whose verdict is final. Furthermore, participation implies acceptance of these guidelines governing the award.

Guidelines for the RTVA Award to the Andalusian Audiovisual Creation will be distributed publicly and will be available for those interested on the RTVA website.

Third

The winner of the RTVA Award to the Andalusian Audiovisual Creation will be presented with a trophy consisting of a bronze reproduction of the sculpture “El DILEMA”, by Mario César de las Cuevas.

Fourth

The award will be presented by the person appointed by the RTVA during the closing ceremony of the relevant competition, under the terms to be agreed with the organiser/s.

Fifth

The award-winning audiovisual work shall be broadcast by any RTVA channels within a time period created for this purpose. Acceptance of the award will transfer rights of broadcast to CANAL SUR TELEVISION S.A., by signing a document for this purpose. For a period of three (3) YEARS the award-winning work can be shown, including no territorial exclusivity for broadcast on different channels. During this period the work will also be made available on the Internet and for public communication by television, both analogue and digital, terrestrial-wave, cable or satellite, and transfer of free broadcasting and distribution in DVD rights of a limited edition of the award-winning DVD, if this is done.

Sixth

A work can only receive a RTVA award, even if selected for several contests.

Documentation

In order to be able to broadcast the short film in CSTV, the RTVA must receive from the person/s awarded, within one (1) month, the following documentation:

1 copy in DVD of the award-winning work

1 copy in DVC PRO (Canal Sur's broadcasting format) of the work

1 copy of the Technical Specifications of the work

1 copy of the DNI of the person signing the document transferring the rights attached in this Annex.

Documents must be sent to the following address:

JEFATURA DE RELACIONES INSTITUCIONALES RTVA

Ctra. San Juan-Tomares, Km 1,3

41920 SAN JUAN DE AZNALFARACHE-SEVILLA.
