The Malta Short Film Festival 2017

The ninth edition of the Malta Short Film Festival will be held between July and September 2016 and produced by the Malta Film Foundation (VO/0578).

Genre

The festival is open to all short films including animation, fiction, war, drama, thriller and documentaries. All genres of film are considered.

Applicant/s

The primary contact completing the submission process must be authorized to submit the film for consideration including permission from a distributor or sales agent representing the film and must have obtained necessary permissions for the inclusion of copyrighted music, names and/or images within the film. In certain cases, there might be more than one person who would like to submit their work and in this case, they must submit a joint application. Any legal matter arising from copyright infringement or related to PRS rights, lies solely with the applicant.

It is essential that the application is submitted with the correct spelling in English. The producers cannot be held responsible if there are errors on the application or if they do not match the spelling used in the titles of the film. Certificates and all PR will be issued with the spelling submitted in the application.

Application forms that are not signed will be considered invalid. Those applying through Film Freeway, Click for Festivals or Festhome need to submit also a scanned copy of the application with an original signature.

Applicants may not impose restrictions on the organisers on the showing of their film if chosen for the official selection. The official selection will be published prior to the festival.

Applicants who are under 18 years of age may participate but must supply a letter from their legal guardian/s stating that they approve of the applicant participating in the festival.

Duration

The maximum duration of the films is 15 minutes including the credits or opening/closing logos. There is no minimum duration.

Country of origin

The films can originate from any country in the world.

Language

If the original language of any dialogue or text featured in the film is not English, the preview and screening copy must be subtitled or dubbed in English. The title of the film can be kept in the original language, however this has to be subtitled in English. This also applies to entries from Malta.

Synopsis

A synopsis of the film, including the genre/s the applicant feels it falls into must be clearly stated.

Repeat entries

Submissions can also include films which have already participated in other festivals, however this will not be mentioned when the film is screened or streamed. Filmmakers who have participated previously in the festival can participate with new projects, but cannot submit the same film twice.

Publicity

In addition to the reproduction of stills and clips of selected films and/or trailer/s for all publicity material, both print, television and the web, excerpts of films may be used for all promotional material. The producers may use stills, synopsis and/or trailer of each submission on social network sites to create interest in the festival.
