

FEST FILMS SUBMISSIONS 2022

RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1. FEST - New Directors | New Films Festival (hereinafter: the Festival) will have its next edition from 20th June to 27th June, 2022 in Espinho, Portugal.
- 1.2. The Festival is organized by FEST – Associação Cultural (hereinafter: the Organization), a non-profit NGO (Non-Governmental Organization) developing work on film, media and education, registered at Rua 23 N.º 768, 4500-276 Espinho, Portugal.
- 1.3. The 18th edition of the FEST will take place with the following objectives:
 - Promote sustainable development of film, screenings and promoting new talents in this area;
 - Disseminate new innovative work and film discourses from around the globe, providing a privileged window into the world of New Cinema;
 - Create new audiences for cinema;
 - Promote the interchange of experiences between participants in the event;
 - Elevate the skills of participants;
 - Promote the city of Espinho as a quality cultural tourism destination;
 - Offer a quality cultural event accessible to every individual.

2. ELIGIBILITY

- 2.1. The Festival has two distinct types of competition, competitions focused on Feature Films (upwards of 55 minutes length) and competitions for Short Films (up to 54 minutes). These competitions are represented in the sections Golden and Silver Lynx, NEXXT, Portuguese Grand Prix and FESTinha.
- 2.2. The short film competition accepts short length films made by directors with no more than 35 years of age (including) on the last day of production, in the area of Fiction, Documentary, Animation, Experimental Non-Narrative Cinema, and short film content aimed at children and younger audiences.
- 2.3. The feature film competition accepts films that are first or second feature length productions (regardless of the director's age).
- 2.4. The films must have been concluded after the 1st of January 2021 and they must not have been screened in previous editions of the Festival.
 - Portuguese films must not have been screened, under all circumstances, no more than on two separate occasions in the Portuguese territory. All films screened in Portugal more than twice may be disqualified.
- 2.5. Film submissions will not be discriminated in terms of theme, genre, race, creed or any other limitations, apart from the elements described in these regulations. As such, all submissions will be analysed with the same rigor and dedication.
- 2.6. Submissions which do not fit these requirements will be considered invalid automatically, and FEST reserves the right to not let the applicant know that his or her application has been disqualified.

3. FILMS SUBMISSIONS

- 3.1. All films to be considered for selection must be submitted using only one of the following options:
 - Using the Eventival platform which can be found at www.fest.pt. The submission form must be completed in its entirety, and a link to any secure internet service that does not require immediate file download or limited streaming must be added in the appropriate section (Vimeo, YouTube, Dropbox, Google drive, etc.). It is not mandatory for the link to also be made available for download, but we would welcome it if you choose to make that option available within the streaming service;
 - Using our own page at FilmFreeway (<https://filmfreeway.com/festival/FestNewDirectorsNewFilmsFestival>), where the largest possible amount of information about the production should be made available. If you choose to not use the FilmFreeway streaming service, we would be thankful if the submitters would leave the download option activated, but this is not mandatory;
 - Using our page at Click For Festivals (<https://www.clickforfestivals.com/fest-new-directors-new-films-festival>), where the largest possible amount of information about the production should be made available;
 - Using our page at Film Festival Life (<http://www.filmfestivallife.com/fest-new-directorsnew-films-festival>), where the largest possible amount of information about the production should be made available;
 - Using our page at Festhome (<https://festhome.com/f/1524>), where the largest possible amount of information about the production should be made available.
- 3.2. The film submission period terminates on the 6th of March 2022 at 23h59 GMT. All applications submitted after the mentioned deadline may be automatically disqualified.
- 3.3. All links/online screeners must be made available until the 1st of June 2022. It is also obligatory that all films are made available with English subtitles (including Portuguese productions) unless all dialogues are already in English.
- 3.4. If the submitter has any problem completing the application or making the online screener available via streaming, he or she must get in direct contact with the Organization of the Festival via the following address films@fest.pt between the 11th of November 2021 and the 6th of March 2022 (the email title/subject must contain the title of the film and the name of the director in the title). The organization reserves the right to not reply to requests and queries sent outside of the mentioned period.
- 3.5. The applicant will indicate on the entry form the category of their film. Only one of the following options must be chosen: Fiction; Documentary; Animation; Experimental.
 - If the film in question is a hybrid, where different styles and genres are mixed, the candidate must choose one single genre.
 - The Organization reserves the right to opt for a different genre than the one the candidate choose and indicated in the submission form.
- 3.6. It is permitted for the applicant to submit more than one film (in separate entries); The candidate cannot submit the same film in different categories or genres, as described in point 3.5.
- 3.7. Once a film is submitted to the Festival, it cannot, for any reason, be removed from the program by the person or institution who submitted it.
- 3.8. By filling in the form and sending the application and film, the applicant provides full legal authorization for the Organization to exhibit the film in the Festival and in public presentations. However, each selected candidate will be contacted in order to sign and send us an exhibition licence, either as an individual or as a group, for legal purposes.

4. SUBMISSION FEE

- 4.1. All film submissions are dependent on a submission fee of 6,00 EUR for short films and 10,00 EUR for feature films. The payment will be completed using Paypal and the submission platforms mentioned above in 3.1.
- 4.2. The submission fee between the 11th of November and the 11th of December is subject to the “Early Bird” discount, where the prices drop to 4,00 EUR for short Films and 8,00 EUR for feature Films.
 - All the submissions completed after this period will have to pay the normal fee, as mentioned on point 4.1.
- 4.3. All Portuguese majority productions are exempt of any submission fee in order for the organization to promote the participation of the Portuguese artists and industry members. This exemption does not apply to other Portuguese speaking nations and regions.
- 4.4. All productions from countries currently under sanctions by the European Union or the Portuguese Republic, or with significant obstacles to PayPal access or impossibility of international bank transfers, may be exempt from paying the submission fee.
 - All of these situations will be dealt on a case by case basis, as such, it is vital that these candidates get in touch with the Organization of the Festival, before completing the submission, via this email films@fest.pt.
- 4.5. If a candidate has any significant technical problem in the payment of the submission fee, he or she must get in touch right away with the organization via email to films@fest.pt in order to initiate a discussion on alternative payment methods. These situations will be dealt with on a case by case basis and the Organization reserves the right to not provide alternative to PayPal as a payment method.
- 4.6. If a candidate requires a Fee Waiver, they will have to get in touch with the organization via email to films@fest.pt, explaining with great detail the reasons behind their request. The Organization reserves the right to deny any Fee Waiver.
- 4.7. If the purchaser wishes to receive an invoice, it must be requested within the first 30 days after making the payment. The invoice request must be sent via email to films@fest.pt and it must have the payment confirmation attached and contain the invoice details of the purchaser (name, postal address and tax / VAT number).

5. AWARDS AND JURY

- 5.1. The Festival's competitions are structured in different sections, each with its own jury members. Each section, jury and award is structured as follows:
 - All feature films selected for the Golden Lynx competition will be disputing the awards Golden Lynx for Best Fiction Feature Film; or Golden Lynx For Best Documentary Feature Film. These works will also be disputing the Audience Award for Best Feature Film;
 - All short Films selected for the Silver Lynx Competition will be disputing the awards Silver Lynx For Best Fiction Short Film; or Silver Lynx Award For Best Documentary Short Film; or Silver Lynx Award For Best Animation Short Film; or Silver Lynx Award For Best Experimental Short Film. All these works will also be disputing the Audience Award For Best Short Film;
 - All the short Films selected for the National Grand Prix (GPN or NGP), limited to Portuguese majority productions, will be disputing the National Grand Prix Award;
 - All the Short Films selected for the NEXXT competition, limited to films produced in an academic context, will be disputing the NEXXT Award;
 - All the Feature and Short Films selected for the FESTinha section, focused on content directed at children and teenagers, will be disputing one of the three possible awards: FESTinha Sub10; FESTinha Sub12; e FESTinha Sub16.

- 5.2. The Organization of the Festival will create 6 separate jury groups (between 2 and 5 members each), who will have total freedom, and will not be subjected to any interference or suggestions by the organization, in the moment of choosing the winning films. These 6 groups will be formed under the following structure:
 - Fiction Feature Jury;
 - Feature and Short Documentary Jury;
 - Short Animation and Experimental Jury;
 - Short Fiction Jury;
 - NEXXT Jury;
 - National Grand Prix Jury;
- 5.3. The winners of the FESTinha competition will be defined in a different format, where a pre-defined group of children and teenagers, through a workshop method, will decide on the 3 winning films, without any interference by the Organization which may put in question the independence and neutrality of the jury.
- 5.4. The two Audience Awards (one for feature and another for short films) will be defined through a ballot paper vote that is distributed in the beginning of the official screening, and collected at the end. The final result will obey a size of audience ratio logic.
 - Only the films exhibited in the context of the Golden and Silver Lynx competitions will be eligible for the Audience Award.
- 5.5. The final Jury attributes awards without appeal and according to rules based on general principles determined by Organization. The final jury has the right to not award any one of the prizes if the criteria, according to their belief, are not met.
 - The Jury may not choose to award more than one winning film in each category.
 - The Jury may distribute a maximum of two Honourable Mentions per category, although it has the right to not attribute any mention if it sees fit.
- 5.6. Media representatives present at the Festival may provide a Film Critics' Award without the interference of the Organization.
- 5.7. The Organization ensures the delivery of prizes, if no representative of the film is present at the closing ceremony, which will take place on the 26th of June 2022 in Espinho. The prizes consist of a special trophy that will be sent via post until the end of July 2022.
- 5.8. Additional rewards are not guaranteed, and if confirmed will be made known via our website www.fest.pt, together with additional rules specifically defined for that purpose, if necessary. These new rules will not change or affect any other rule published in this document.

6. SELECTION PROCESS

- 6.1. The selection of the Festival is made by a secret group of programmers which should not be contacted directly by the applicants, as such any direct dialogue with programmers can be regarded as an unfair advantage and can be a strong enough reason for the Organization to disqualify the submissions.
 - All information, questions, queries or sending of additional material or updated news of the film or filmmakers recent career must be sent to at films@fest.pt (the email title/subject must contain the title of the film and the name of the director in the title).
