

17th BRAZIL'S KIDS FILM FESTIVAL – BKFF 2018 REGULATIONS
INTERNATIONAL SUBMISSIONS ONLY (Brazilian films should not be submitted*)

1. INTRODUCTION

The 17th Brazil's Kids Film Festival takes place from September to November 2019 in different Brazilian cities. Submissions for feature and short films as well as TV series, are opened from March 18th to April 18th, 2019.

The Brazil's Kids Film Festival's goal is to broaden and stimulate the Brazilian youth's interest in high quality and culturally diverse films. In addition, the Festival promotes the connection between international filmography and the Brazilian market to increase interest for international kids'-oriented films.

Our programming presents a selection of around 100 works and we choose 2 to 3 films a year to be dubbed to Portuguese. Other films selected will have the traditional voice over during the exhibitions.

The BKFF targets an audience of children and teenagers and offers a selection of features and short films from different countries, including recent and not so recent films as well as unforgettable classics.

2. SUBMISSIONS

* VERY IMPORTANT: Brazilian filmmakers that wish to compete in the 'Brazilian Award for Children's Short Films' category should fill in the submission form and follow the instructions available at the festivals' website EXCLUSIVELY www.fici.com.br. We'll call for entries soon.

Brazilian films submitted via Click For Festivals website won't be considered for the competition.

Any submissions made after April 18th will be disqualified.

There is no payment of screening fees or taxes as well as there is no competition for foreign films. So, once an international film is submitted, the producers agree to participate under these conditions.
