

The INTERNATIONAL ANIMATION AWARDS, spot and celebrates cartoons and animations from all around the world. The Festival creates a platform that connects professionals in the cartoon & animation industry. Our goal is to provide a windows to show and connect talents.

This is an ONLINE Festival. The winners will have a permanent place on our website.

At this time, we are only requesting online submissions and all materials must be viewable online, as we want to remain as green as possible.

By submitting to the festival, you agree to allow your film to be screened by the festival during the festival run, for which you are submitting, at no charge to the festival.

All media selected by the festival will be asked to provide promotional materials, but we ask that no promotional materials be sent until selection.

By submitting to the festival you are admitting copyright ownership of everything submitted.

The festival reserves the right to disqualify any submission at any time, if there is any question of ownership, copyright infringement or any sign of disrespect (in any form of media) to the festival or its representatives.
